

BOX FOR MOBILE

Work anywhere, on any device with the security features you've come to trust from Box

In today's mobile-first, cloud-first world, providing employees with secure access to content at any time using any device is critical to creating a more productive, connected workforce. Moving to a cloud technology like Box allows you to centralize all of your content and provides efficiency, speed, and simplicity for your employees.

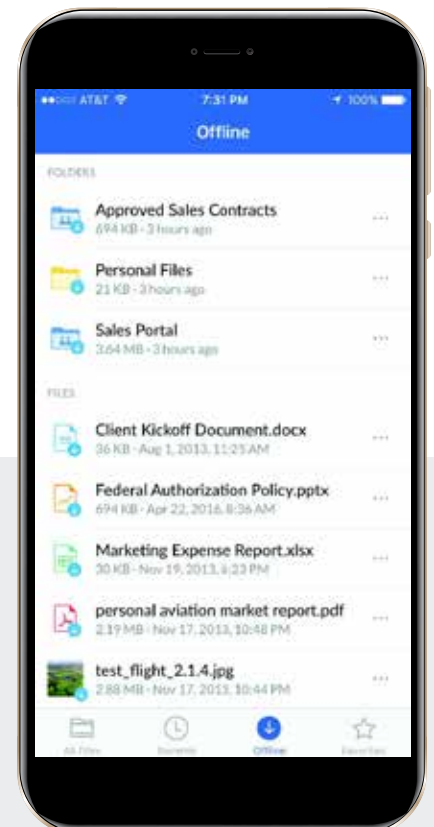

Share, access, and work with all your files — and your teams

- Quickly find what you need with intuitive navigation and in-document search
- Share files in seconds and keep them handy with offline access
- Instantly view 100+ file formats without downloading
- Stay up-to-date on progress and feedback with instant notifications

Work with your favorite apps without leaving Box

- Use integrations with over 1,400 enterprise apps like Office 365, Salesforce, DocuSign, and Slack
- Edit Office files right from your device and save all changes back to Box
- Work on both Android™ and iOS without license requirements, VPN, or browser constraints

Box enables sales reps to get presentations and contracts in front of customers twice as quickly, which means that contracts are signed, deals are closed, and revenue is generated faster than ever before.

Give your team a mobile experience IT can trust

- Help protect data with access permissions for sharing, copying, and pasting content
- Remotely log out users and delete Box app data if devices are lost or stolen
- Enforce app passcodes, control offline access, and restrict data access in other apps
- Use integrations with leading Electronic Mobility Management (EMM) providers for advanced mobile security and device management capabilities

Box helps meet users' external collaboration and mobile access needs while giving IT centralized management and enterprise-grade security. Thanks to Box, companies can offload their on-premise file servers and thereby reducing costs. Talk to a Canon Solutions America Sales Representative to find out how you could be saving today.
