

WHIZ FOR EDUCATION

Commercial Robot Vacuum

SMART CHANGE STARTS HERE.

THE CHALLENGE:

- ✓ Innovation: You're constantly innovating to attract top students, and differentiate from other universities.
- ✓ Sustainability: You're continually challenged to improve sustainability, and reduce your carbon footprint.
- ✓ Student Experience: You're evolving to meet and exceed student—and parent—expectations to earn tuition, revenue, charitable contributions, alumni engagement, and rankings for your institution.
- ✓ Faculty Confidence: Your faculty is a core asset for revenue and prestige, but they have concerns about returning to in-person instruction at the risk of getting sick.

What's the next step in your education experience ecosystem?

Reassurance.

- ✓ VISIBLE
- ✓ DATA-DRIVEN
- ✓ MARKETABLE
- ✓ EFFECTIVE

THE SOLUTION:

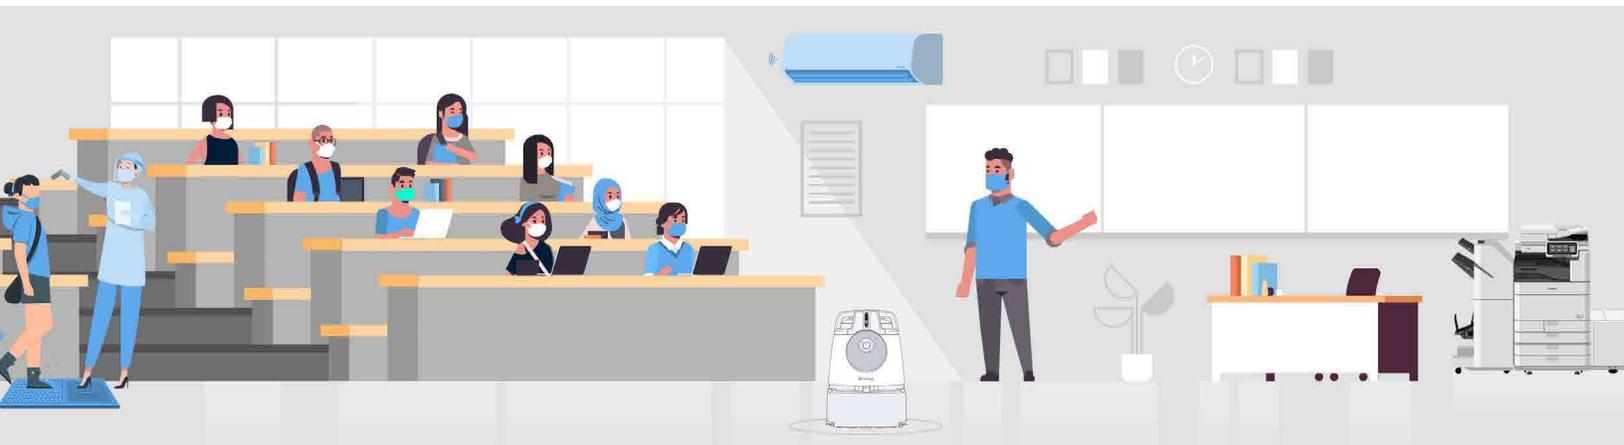

Meet Whiz

How Canon Solutions America Can Help

Universities across the country have deployed Whiz in their libraries, office buildings, hallways, and sports facilities.

- On-site staff to engage the device on a daily basis, including start-up, run, and management of consumables and maintenance.
- Utilize our change management expertise to seamlessly integrate Whiz into your existing safety and health program.
- Tailored analytics and performance reporting.

THE RESULTS IN EDUCATION

Bring people back to campus by demonstrating your investment in their health and safety while also achieving:

8X

Improvement in dust control*

50%

Cleaner floors compared to manual vacuuming*

61%

Higher cognitive function in buildings with clean air

“Evidence that the space will be cleaner and safer is important to me.”

Office-based employee, SBRA Survey, October 2020

“These autonomous vacuums work as a staffing supplement, taking care of some of the more monotonous jobs, allowing our skilled staff to take care of more essential tasks.”

Thhile Brown, Operations Supervisor, Custodial Services at Michigan State University

How to Integrate Today

Give time back to internal or third party cleaners by leveraging onsite staff to manage daily operations and maintenance, receive customized reporting, and drive digital transformation.
